intelligence, computer science education, cybersecurity, data science, human-centered computing, robotics, software, systems, and theory. Strong candidates in multi-disciplinary or emerging areas of computing are also encouraged to apply.

The successful applicant will be required to teach; advise and mentor graduate students; develop an independent, externally funded research program; participate in all aspects of the department's activities, and serve the profession.

The Department of Computer Science and Engineering (CSE) at Texas A&M is currently one of 15 departments in the College of Engineering. Many of the 52 tenured/tenure-track faculty and 20 teaching-focused faculty hold a number of national distinctions, including ACM, IEEE, AAAS, SIAM Fellows, and ACM Distinguished Scientists and Engineers. The department has a strong and vibrant research program, with half the faculty having received NSF CAREER awards. CSE faculty have strong collaborations with the Center for Remote Health Technologies and Systems, Institute of Data Science, Global Cyber Research Institute, Cybersecurity Center, and Bush Combat Development Complex. Our student population comprises over 1,500 undergraduate students (sophomore to senior level) and nearly 550 graduate students. The department just moved to the newly renovated Peterson Building, with airy modern offices, conference rooms, and lounges equipped with state-of-the-art A/V technology. More information about CSE is available at <http://www.cse.tamu.edu>.

Applicants must have earned a doctorate in computer science, computer engineering, or a closely related field. Applicants should submit a cover letter, curriculum vitae, teaching statement, research statement, diversity statement, and a list of three references (including email addresses) by applying for this specific position at <http://apply.interfolio/115898>. The review process will begin immediately. The review of applications will begin by December 1, 2022. Applications received after that date may be considered until positions are filled. It is anticipated that the appointments will begin in Fall 2023. Questions concerning the application process can be directed to Kathy Waskom at k-waskom@tamu.edu.
