- A commitment to an academic culture that is inclusive of a diverse population of students, faculty, and staff
- Effective oral and written communication with a strong commitment to excellence in teaching, scholarship, and service

Preferred Qualifications

- Experience with professional organizations such as IEEE, ASEE, ABET, etc.
- Prior teaching experience at the college level
- Consulting or industrial experience

Additional Information:

Mercer's undergraduate engineering program is accredited by ABET/EAC using a core curriculum model. The School of Engineering offers both Bachelor and Master of Science in Engineering degrees with specializations in biomedical, civil, computer, electrical, environmental, industrial, and mechanical as well as engineering-related programs in cyber systems, technical communications, and industrial management. The undergraduate curriculum is dynamic, innovative, and broadly based, and it includes the option of an integrated BSE/MSE degree program for qualified candidates. Total engineering enrollment is over 750 students.

Selection of the final candidate is contingent on a successful background check.

Interested and qualified individuals desiring to join the school's dedicated faculty should complete the brief online application and attach a 1) cover letter, 2) current curriculum vitae, 3) statement of teaching philosophy and research interests, and 4) a list of four professional references. Review of applicants will begin November 30, 2024, and continue until the position is filled. Visit the School of Engineering website at <https://engineering.mercer.edu/>
