Position Description

The Charles W. Davidson College of Engineering at San Jose State University (SJSU) invites applications for the position of Department Chair for the Department of Mechanical Engineering. The department is proud to be the primary supplier of mechanical engineers for the San Francisco Bay Area. Our employers have recognized the hands-on abilities of the graduating students. The department offers two degree programs (Bachelors and Masters in Mechanical Engineering) and a minor in robotics. The department is home to more than 900 students, 15 full-time and 25 part-time faculty. The Department Chair will provide visionary leadership for the department and must have a substantive record of published research, teaching effectiveness, and professional achievements. The Department Chair will provide academic and administrative leadership, promote excellence in research and teaching, and manage and secure resources for the department.
