design studio courses as well as lecture and seminar courses on topics closely related to architecture. Each position is primarily focused on teaching; however, all faculty are expected to develop a creative and scholarly agenda that contributes to the mission and goals of the school, college, and university. The programs in the School of Architecture are NAAB and ABET accredited and depend on a dedicated faculty of 18 professors working as a close-knit team serving a student body of 350. For 114 years, the program has been professionally educating architects and architectural engineers, combining a strong design and problem-solving curriculum with an emphasis on technology and building systems integration.

Candidates are required to have a terminal degree in architecture according to one of the following options:

- NAAB-accredited BArch + post-professional degree (MArch or MS) + professional license
- NAAB-accredited MArch + professional license
- PhD in Architecture

Candidates with professional experience are highly encouraged to apply and must be versatile and capable of teaching at the foundation and advanced level design studios. Candidates are also expected to have a clear scholarship/research agenda and offer courses that contribute to the School of Architecture's academic curriculum.

Screening of applicants will begin February 1, 2024, and will continue until the position is filled. The successful candidate will join the faculty August 1, 2024. Please submit questions to the Chair of the Search Committee, Associate Professor Jerry Stivers at jerry.stivers@okstate.edu.
