Worcester Polytechnic Institute - WPI

JOB DESCRIPTION SUMMARY

The Electrical and Computer Engineering (ECE) department at Worcester Polytechnic Institute (WPI) seeks applicants for a teaching faculty position opening at the Instructor level in all areas including microelectronics, power electronics, semiconductor-related engineering, computer engineering, digital circuit design, embedded systems, cybersecurity, and advanced digital system design.

WPI is passionate about creating an inclusive workplace that promotes and values diversity. We are looking for candidates who can support our commitment to equity, diversity and inclusion.

JOB DESCRIPTION

The individual selected for the position will be primarily responsible for teaching a variety of courses in Electrical and Computer Engineering as well as advising students and student projects as part of WPI's unique project-based curriculum. A qualified candidate will hold an advanced degree (M.S., Ph.D., or equivalent) in Electrical and Computer Engineering or a related discipline and must be able to demonstrate excellence in teaching a broad range of topics in Electrical and Computer Engineering. Preference will be given to candidates with a strong background in one or more of the areas of microelectronics, power electronics, semiconductor-related engineering, computer engineering, digital circuit design, embedded systems, cybersecurity, and advanced digital system design.

WPI's reputation as a rigorous and innovative university rests on the shoulders of its faculty. A highly selective, private technological university and one of the nation's first, WPI believes that when great minds work together, great advances follow. At WPI the boundaries to multidisciplinary collaboration are low. Faculty members, students, and other partners work together on the real-world projects and purposeful research that are hallmarks of the WPI experience. We are most proud of a recent No. 1 ranking for "faculty who best combine research and teaching." (Wall Street Journal/Times Higher Ed, 2016). Located one hour west of Boston, the university's campus is in Worcester, Massachusetts, a thriving 21st century college city recognized as a growing hub of scientific and technological innovation.

Qualified applicants should submit (1) a curriculum vitae, (2) a teaching statement, (3) a cover letter, and (4) names and contact information of at least four references. Review of applications will continue until the position is filled.
